ISF STUDENT LIFE GUIDE STUDENTS LEADING THEIR WORLD

WHERE STUDENTS DON'T JUST PARTICIPATE – THEY LEAD.

At ISF – Where the World Feels Like Home – student life is built around active participation, responsibility, and leadership. At the center of this experience is the SABIS Student Life Organization® (SLO®), a unique, student-led system that empowers students to get involved in shaping their school community.

WHAT STUDENTS DO

Students actively:

- Organize academic and social events
- Create and lead campaigns and awareness initiatives
- Support peers through tutoring and mentoring
- Contribute to school culture and community

SKILLS DEVELOPED

Through SLO®, students build:

- Leadership and accountability
- Communication and collaboration
- Resilience and independence
- Empathy and global awareness

IN ACTION (EXAMPLES)

- Peer tutoring & academic competitions
- Anti-bullying campaigns
- Spirit days and student integration programs
- Charity drives and awareness initiatives

Through SLO®, ISF students gain real-world experience in leadership and responsibility, preparing them not only for university, but for life.

WHAT IS SLO®?

SLO® is a dynamic, student-led community dedicated to supporting the student body by fostering academic excellence, developing essential life skills, and promoting holistic student growth into confident, disciplined, and resilient global citizens. Through its nine departments, students take ownership of school life—organizing events, supporting peers, and leading initiatives.
